

After Us Yet.

Kirwin Chief.
The name of W. S. Tilton, editor of the Wa-Keeney Weekly, is mentioned as a candidate for the office of state auditor on the Republican ticket next fall. Mr. Tilton is a western man, and thoroughly qualified for the position. He is an indefatigable worker in the Republican ranks, and his name would be a tower of strength to the ticket in the western part of the state. If the delegates from the west will stick, and work in unison, they can name the man, and he, in justice to himself and for the good of the party, should be W. S. Tilton.

The Point in Education.

Atlanta Constitution.
Somehow or other we do not get at the pith of this controversy in regard to literary collegiate graduates and non-graduates. Probably it is not as important as some of our contemporaries seem to believe. The great question is not, did a man attend college, but did he succeed? In other words, did he "get there?" A man's education depends on the man himself, just as his success does. The man who succeeds as a college graduate would succeed if he had never seen a college, and there is very little difference in the elements that go in making up the success of a college man and that of the non-college man.

A Novel Letter.

Kirwin Chief.
The following novel letter was handed us a few days since by a gentleman who found it on East Main street. The author is undoubtedly one of the many candidates for the postmastership of Kirwin: KIRWIN, KANSAS, August 3, 1885.
To Mr. Cleveland, Big White House on the Hill, Washington, Dan County.
DEAR SIR—I am a candidate for general of the Kurwen post office an' sent you mi papers. I got 'em from mi relashuns who is meny an' boss this town. They says Bill May has got to git out, and Frank Turner te. Monell haint got any papers 'cause mi relashuns wants me tne hev the office. Mi relashuns are oneasy bekauze you don't cum out 'ere, and I'm tired waitin. I am a Jefferson demokrat an' don't yu fergit it. Mi relashuns is oneaser. Yeu hed better cum rite off. Bring yer bed along.

The Soldiers' Re-union.

Leavenworth Times.
The fourth annual re-union of soldiers and sailors of Kansas, to be held at Topeka, September 29th and 30th and October 1st, promises to be one of the biggest and best things of the kind ever held in the West.
All old soldiers and sailors are members of the committee to see that everybody attends, and it goes without saying that this committee work will be done well. The majority of Kansans have had neither the opportunity or means wherewith to "do" the seaside and mountain resorts this year, and an occasion is wanted, near home, where a relaxation from the cares incident to every day life may be indulged in.
There is nothing so nearly adapted to supply this need as the Topeka re-union, and it should be attended by all.
Leavenworth may be counted on for a full delegation—full in point of numbers, we mean.
Kansas has always done herself proud in the matter of soldierly gatherings, both during and since the war, and the coming event should be no exception to the rule.
FALL IN!

"Horsemen's Harvest."

The six strong young cities of the Golden Belt of Kansas have organized the "Kansas Pacific Circuit of Race Meetings and Fairs," and offer this fall $12,500 in purses for trotting, running and pacing. Their object is to encourage the breeding and owning of first-class roadsters, and to make of their particular section of country the Kentucky "Blue Grass Region" of the west, avoiding, if possible, the demoralizing influences that are supposed to attach to races in that famous southern country. Their first meetings will be as follows:
Concordia, August 25-28.
Salina, September 1-3.
Minneapolis, September 8-11.
Clay Center, September 15-18.
Abilene, September 22-25.
McPherson, September 29-30-Oct. 1.
Kansas horsemen should encourage the organization and send their best horses to this circuit. The Kansas Pacific division of the U. P. R. will transport passengers and freight at one-half regular rates. Displays of fine cattle and farm products; Roman Chariot races; cornet band and base ball tournaments and other "specialties" will lend additional attractions to these meetings.
Cut this notice out and paste it in your hat, or apply for further particulars to the secretary of any one of the societies, or to the secretary of the circuit.
H. S. CUNNINGHAM, Salina.

Preparing for the Cholera.

Chamberlain & Co., of Des Moines, Iowa, have received five car loads of bottles so as to be prepared to supply Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, in case bowel complaints or cholera are epidemic this summer. Their preparation is a success and a great favorite for bowel complaints throughout the northwest. Sold by B. WAGNER & CO.
J. B. Brenton & Co., druggists, Adel, Iowa, say: "We have sold hundreds of bottles of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy to residents of Adel and vicinity, and always keep a bottle open for dispensing in doses, and we use it in our own families whenever occasion requires. We have never known it to fail in any case, and we have seen it used in bowel complaint in all its forms, and the most severe and dangerous cases. The medicine has our fullest confidence and endorsement as a life preserver." Sold by B. WAGNER & CO.
Another Life Saved.
Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy cured me of chronic diarrhoea after years of standing, when it seemed I could live no longer. I was growing so weak.
Mrs. E. GLEASON, Salem, Dent Co., Mo.
